A FATAL ACCIDENT

AMOS BEACH, A YOUNG RAILROAD WORKER, KILLED.

ON WABASH RIVER BRIDGE

Body to Be Sent to West Lebanon, Ind., for Burial—Leaves a Wife and Son.

Amos Beach, a concrete worker with the Wabash railway bridge constructionists that have been working on the bridge on the Wabash on the 102 river, met with a fatal accident Thursday evening at 4:30 o'clock. Death came at 6:15 o'clock at St. Francis hospital.

The accident that caused Beach's death occurred at the Wabash bridge over the 102 river, four miles south of Maryville.

The ten or eleven men in the gang, under the direction of Foreman C. F. Hirling, had just completed the concrete work on the bridge and were letting the derrick down by means of five guy wires, when one of the guys went over the telegraph wires. An inch and a half rope was then tied to the derrick and used as a guy in place of the wire that went over the telegraph wires, and to remove the one that had failed.

Mr. Beach and two other men were pulling one of the guy wires to give the derrick a start. When the derrick started the rope either broke or came unfastened and let the derrick fall sidewise. As it fell it stretched the guy they were holding with such force as to jerk them ten feet or more from the ground. They were unable to retain their hold on the wire and all of them fell, two of them sustaining nothing more serious than bad bruises.

Mr. Beach fell on his head on a pile of lumber and steel. He sustained a lacerated fracture at the base of the brain on the left side. The men telephoned at once to Maryville for an ambulance to meet them at the state road Wabash bridge, just east of town, to which point they brought the injured man on a handcar.

Dr. G. A. Nash was called and the patient was taken to St. Francis hospital, where he died in one hour after their arrival.

Mr. Beach was from West Lebanon, Ind. He leaves a wife and three children and his mother. Mrs. Beach and their youngest child came to Maryville about three weeks ago and spent a few days here and went on to Iola, Kan., to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles Ramsberg, who lives in the country near there. She is expected to arrive in Maryville Friday night.

Mr. Beach had finished the work here with his foreman and was to leave Friday for his home in Indiana, as Mrs. Beach was to continue her visit awhile longer.

A letter was found in his pocket from his 8-year-old son, received Wednesday, which was evidently a hurried reply to a letter to Mr. Beach's mother. It read:

"West Lebanon, Ind., July 18, 1911.—Hello, Papa: We were so glad to hear from you. We are all well and hope you are, too. No, we don't want any money if you come home the last of the week. But if you don't come home $2 or $3 is all grandma says we will need. But if you come home we won't need it. You know the pear tree down by the old hickory tree. Well, we got a dish full off it, and that is all there is. But the other pear tree is loaded. It is awfully dry here. This is all I know now. We'll be glad when you come. Your loving son, Ralph E. Beach."

Foreman Hirling received a telegram Friday morning from Mrs. Beach at Iola, Kan., with the direction to send the body to West Lebanon, and it is supposed she left Iola Friday morning for Indiana. Mr. Hirling will accompany the body.

Mr. Hirling is from Williamsport, Ind., as also are several other men here in his employ, who are his brother, William Hirling; Jesse B. Lyons, Jesse McElhoe and Wilbur Waymire, and Alex Kisar, who is from Amos Beach's town, West Lebanon. All these are young men, and it was evident that they felt deeply the death of the other young man, who was about 34 years old. He had worked for several years for Mr. Hirling, who considered him one of his best men. He was a genial natured young man and liked by all who knew him.

What a sad home-coming to his mother, wife and children. He hopes that 8-year-old boy is a brave little fellow. He will have to be a man now, for their only support is taken. He was only recently married.

MRS. ALEX KUENSTER ILL BUT ONE WEEK

Frank Barmann and his daughter, Miss Laura Barmann, returned Friday morning from Glen Haven, Wis., where on Tuesday they attended the funeral services of Mrs. Alex Kuenster, who died there Sunday morning, after a week's illness of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Kuenster was the wife of Mrs. Barmann's brother, who was a widely known shoe merchant of Maryville for about eighteen years, and will be better remembered as the proprietor of the Elephant shoe store. They left here for Chicago about thirteen years ago, which has since been their home. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kuenster were born and reared at Glen Haven, Wis., and were married there about thirty-three years ago. Four months ago Mr. Kuenster became very ill of carbuncles. Blood poisoning set in and he was dangerously ill for many weeks. He finally grew better under the faithful care of his wife, and three weeks ago they went to Glen Haven for a visit, and expecting the change to bring about Mr. Kuenster's recovery. After two weeks Mrs. Kuenster was taken ill as the result of her long vigil, and she was too weak to withstand the fever's attack. She was about 51 years old at the time of her death. Mr. Kuenster is prostrated by her death, and it is feared he will not long survive. They had no children. Somewhere along the Guggenheim trail, brother Charley always shows up. A resolution has just been introduced in congress calling on the president for information as to just what extent Ryan, Ballinger and Charles P. Taft were mixed up in the Guggenheim syndicate that tried to steal Uncle Sam's coal lands in Alaska. For the brother of the president, Charley seems to be a rather thrifty chap who always "stands in when there is a meion to be cut by the interests."

The automobile law, one of the revenue measures passed by the forty-sixth general assembly that escaped the executive axe, is making the secretary of state's office a very busy place these hot days. By the terms of this law it will be necessary for every owner of an automobile to take out license August 1st, and applications are coming in at the rate of 300 per day.

If you own a machine it would be well to get busy at once and get your application on file, thereby avoiding the crush on the first day of the month.

THE CHRONIC GROUCH.

Pity the man who is imbued with a chronic grouch; who goes through life growling his discontent. He is a mental pervert that spreads poison at every hand. Avoid him as you would a hideous monster. He is diseased in mind and body. He is his own worst enemy. You might say his entire life is spent in an endeavor on his part to take revenge against himself and against all mankind. Men and women of that type are committing a crime against themselves and against everyone with whom they come in contact.

If it is a crime to commit suicide, then they are criminals, for such people are already dead mentally. Their minds are living cemeteries; that is, they are filled with the accumulated corpses of the evidence of past sorrows. Such people ought to be protected from themselves and others ought to be protected from them. If they cannot be cured then they at least ought to have a separate community where they could all "get together," and in the pleasure of exchanging sorrows find so much joy that ultimately they might be cured.

Do not nurse a grouch. Do not be crabbed. Let the sunshine in. Let it spread over you the wholesomeness of content.

Break the awful habit of clinging to unpleasant experiences and let every pleasant moment linger in your mind day after day on to life's very end. For you must remember that as you allow life's joys to impress and possess you their power over you increases day after day. They will add to your mental and physical strength. They will often soften, and in some cases beautify your features; therefore, let the sunshine in and allow life's joys to impress you.—Mokane Missourian.

SIX OF THEM.

Six constitutional amendments will be submitted to the voters of the state for their approval at the general election next year, as follows: Providing that free public schools may be established for persons between 5 and 6 and over 20 years of age, raising the amount of taxes which may be levied by cities having between 10,000 and 30,000 inhabitants from 60 to 100 cents on the $100 valuation, and of cities having from 1,000 to 10,000 from 50 to 90 cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, permitting the county of St. Louis to add an additional 5 per cent tax levy for the purpose of constructing sewer districts for the purpose of purchasing or constructing water works; permitting male citizens of the United States and male persons of foreign birth who shall have become citizens of the United States to vote; providing for the issuance of bonds to the amount of $5,000,000 for the purpose of erecting a new state capitol at Jefferson City; and providing for the registration of all voters in all counties having a population of 50,000 or more and which adjoins a city having a population of 300,000 or more. Of course, the capitol amendment will not be submitted if the three and a half million dollar proposition carries at the special election, August 1.

Sheep—500. Market steady.

St. Louis Live Stock Market.

National Stock Yards, Ill., July 20.—Cattle receipts today, 2,000. Receipts of cattle so far this week less than 14,000, against 33,200 same time last week. A big decrease, to be sure, and it helped prices wonderfully. Compared with last Thursday, choice to prime steers are 15@25c higher; top sale, $6.75; could be good enough to reach $7.00. Medium to good steers and all cows and heifers excepting canners are 40@75c higher; top, $7.25.

If rain reports are not exaggerated it means moderate receipts and strong markets again next week. We believe the low point this year has been passed.

Hog receipts, 12,000. Market strong; top, $6.95. Bulk, $6.80@6.95.

Sheep receipts, 5,500. Sheep and lambs strong. Top lambs, $7.25; top sheep, $4.00. Next week's outlook favorable.

Free Sample For Baby's Ills

Something can and must be done for the puny, crying baby, for the child that refuses to eat and is restless in its sleep. And since the basis of all health is the proper working of the digestive organs, look first to the condition of the stomach and bowels.

A child should have two full and free movements of the bowels a day. This emptying of the bowels is very important, as with it comes a clear head, a lightness of step, good appetite and sound sleep. Do not be afraid to give him to know what to give the child in the emergency of constipation and indigestion. Cathartics are too strong and salts and other purgatives are not only too strong, but the child refuses them because of their bad taste. Have you ever tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup, Pepin? It is a liquid tonic and emollient, safe to use for a quarter of a century. It is mild, pleasant-tasting and promptly effective. It is good for you as well as the child, but there is nothing better to be found for children. They like its taste—you will not have to force them to take it.

First of all, if you have not yet used Dr. Caldwell would like to send you a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it before buying. Later, when convinced of its merits, you can get it of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as thousands of other families are doing. The family of Mr. D. W. Spangler of Strattonville, Pa., as well as that of Mr. F. E. Johnson of West Grove, Tenn., started with it in that way and now write that it is their family necessity next to food itself. If you are unfortunate enough to have a sickly child, one given to constipation and indigestion, you should send for a free sample of this remedy.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 599, Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

NO MORE DANDRUFF.

The Koch Pharmacy Sells the Remedy That is Guaranteed to Kill All Dandruff Germs.

Of course you and every intelligent reader of The Democrat-Forum knows that dandruff is caused by a germ.

Dr. Sagerbund, the great French physician, proved this beyond a doubt.

In order to rid your scalp of dandruff you must kill the germ. There is a hair dressing called Parisian Sage which is now sold in every town in America, that is guaranteed to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair, splitting hair and scalp itch in two weeks, or money back.

If you have dandruff get a large 50 cent bottle today and rid yourself of it. Remember that if dandruff germs are not destroyed in time the hair will surely fall out and baldness will follow.

Here's proof of what Parisian Sage has done; it will do more. It is the finest hair grower and hair dressing in the world, and people who use it regularly will never grow bald. Mrs. John Stoner, Evansville, Ind., writes on June 2, 1910:

"I used Parisian Sage and found it very successful; it removes dandruff and gives the hair life. I only used two bottles. I know it is a cure for dandruff."

Large bottles 50 cents at the Koch Pharmacy and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every carton.

CONTRADICTS HINES' STORY

Aldrich Tells of Talk With Lberman About Lorimer.

HE SAW HIM THREE TIMES.

Former Senate Leader Told Hines That President Did Not Object to Boutell or Lorimer and That Taft Would Keep Out of It.

Washington, July 21.—Former Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island told the senate Lorimer committee of the part he and President Taft took in the election of a senator from Illinois in 1909.

Instead of telling Edward Hines of Chicago, the storm center in the present Lorimer investigation, that he and the president were anxious to have Lorimer elected, Mr. Aldrich declared that he said Lorimer's candidacy was "not objectionable."

When attorneys for Lorimer, or cross-examination, tried to show that the former senator might have said "acceptable," Mr. Aldrich emphatically declared that he said "not objectionable" and that he meant that word and nothing more.

He added that he knew Hines would use the information given him at Springfield.

Mr. Aldrich also denied that he told Hines that he considered Lorimer the only man who could be elected. He declared that he did not ask Senator Penrose to bring Hines to consult with him in regard to the Illinois election and added that he did not believe Senator Penrose brought Hines to his room.

According to Mr. Aldrich, all the conversations he had with Hines in regard to the senatorial situation were regarding the president's attitude toward candidates, first Hopkins, then Boutell, then finally Lorimer. The senator denied that he told Hines he wanted a senator elected because of the prospective close vote on the tariff company is the receiver.

In his opinion, Judge McPherson compared the Lewis schemes to the Mississippi bubble and other historic get-rich-quick episodes and declared that if a fraction of the allegations made in the receivership petition were true the Lewis affair constituted one of the most gigantic frauds of the century.

"Mr. Hines then told me," said Mr. Aldrich, "that it was impossible to agree on Boutell and that he believed there was a possibility of agreeing on Lorimer. He was anxious to know the attitude of the president toward Mr. Lorimer. I told him I would give him an answer later. Later in the day I told him Mr. Lorimer's candidacy would not be objectionable to the president."

"Then," continued Mr. Aldrich, "Mr. Hines asked me if I would say that to anyone who inquired of me. I told him that I would say that Mr. Lorimer's election was not objectionable to the president. I said that the president occupied the same position that he had; that he didn't intend to take any part in the election, and that Mr. Lorimer's Republicanism was satisfactory to the president."

Editors Clash Over Meeting Place.

Detroit, July 21.—The place of holding the next convention of the National Editorial Association, which adjourned here after a three days' session, was referred to the national council, a body created in the reorganization of the association. The reference followed a stiff scrimmage. Though a dozen cities were after the convention, the fight narrowed down to Omaha and Richmond, Va. The action of the convention is considered a victory for the western city.

Washington, July 21.—In connection with the charges against Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the chemistry bureau, the house committee on agricultural department expenditures called on the secretary of agriculture for complete information regarding the cost and work of the Remsen board of experts in pure food matters.

The committee decided that the board's work was an integral part of the Wiley case, which it will investigate in connection with the department personnel board's recent recommendation that Dr. Wiley be dismissed for a technical violation of the law under which pure food experts are employed.

The committee wants to know what the Remsen board has cost the government, what work it has accomplished, what recommendation it has made, and what has been done with those recommendations.

The Remsen board was appointed by President Roosevelt, to decide the famous benzoate of soda case. Dr. Wiley held that it was injurious to health and that its use in food preparations should not be allowed. The Remsen board held that when used in certain small quantities, benzoate of soda could not be considered harmful.

STRANG KILLED IN AUTO SMASH

Meets Death When Machine Jumps Embankment.

WISCONSIN PILOT RECKLESS.

Said by Associates in State Reliability Run to Have Been Courting Death Since Party Left Milwaukee Last Monday.

Milwaukee, July 21.—Louis Strang of Racine, probably the best known automobile racer in Wisconsin, was killed at Blue River when his Case car, which he was driving in the state reliability tour, jumped an embankment.

Strang was in charge of the machine carrying the technical committee. While going along at good speed the machine encountered a passing team. In endeavoring to get out of the way, the car jumped a bank.

Three other men jumped and escaped practically unharmed.

Strang was deliberately inviting death in the present state reliability run was the opinion of his associates on the tour. Since leaving Milwaukee Monday, Strang is said to have been so reckless that others who started in his car refused to ride with him. He was recently sued for divorce by his wife.

WILL WIND UP LEWIS' AFFAIRS

Receivership for All Promoter's Property and Companies.

St. Louis, July 21.—The petition of 233 creditors for a blanket receivership of all the property, companies and enterprises of E. G. Lewis was granted in the United States circuit court by Judges Dyer and McPherson.

The court's decision will take the property out of the hands of the reorganization syndicate, which has been in charge of it for nearly three months. The St. Louis Union Trust company is the receiver.

In his opinion, Judge McPherson compared the Lewis schemes to the Mississippi bubble and other historic get-rich-quick episodes and declared that if a fraction of the allegations made in the receivership petition were true the Lewis affair constituted one of the most gigantic frauds of the century.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with Nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to Nature in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Koch Pharmacy.

A FATAL ACCIDENT

AMOS BEACH, A YOUNG RAILROAD WORKER, KILLED.

ON WABASH RIVER BRIDGE

Body to Be Sent to West Lebanon, Ind., for Burial—Leaves a Wife and Son.

Amos Beach, a concrete worker with the Wabash railway bridge constructionists that have been working on the bridge on the Wabash on the 102 river, met with a fatal accident Thursday evening at 4:30 o'clock. Death came at 6:15 o'clock at St. Francis hospital.

The accident that caused Beach's death occurred at the Wabash bridge over the 102 river, four miles southeast of Maryville.

The ten or eleven men in the gang, under the direction of Foreman C. F. Hirling, had just completed the concrete work on the bridge and were letting the derrick down by means of five guy wires, when one of the guys went over the telegraph wires. An inch and a half rope was then tied to the derrick and used as a guy in place of the wire that went over the telegraph wires, and to remove the one that had failed.

Mr. Beach and two other men were pulling one of the guy wires to give the derrick a start. When the derrick started the rope either broke or came unfastened and let the derrick fall sideways. As it fell it stretched the guy they were holding with such force as to jerk them ten feet or more from the ground. They were unable to retain their hold on the wire and all of them fell, two of them sustaining nothing more serious than bad bruises.

Mr. Beach fell on his head on a pile of lumber and steel. He sustained a lacerated fracture at the base of the brain on the left side. The men telephoned at once to Maryville for an ambulance to meet them at the state road Wabash bridge, just east of town, to which point they brought the injured man on a handcar.

Dr. G. A. Nash was called and the patient was taken to St. Francis hospital, where he died in one hour after their arrival.

Mr. Beach was from West Lebanon, Ind. He leaves a wife and three children and his mother. Mrs. Beach and their youngest child came to Maryville about three weeks ago and spent a few days here and went on to Iola, Kan., to visit her sister, Mrs. Charles Ramsberg, who lives in the country near there. She is expected to arrive in Maryville Friday night.

Mr. Beach had finished the work here with his foreman and was to leave Friday for his home in Indiana, as Mrs. Beach was to continue her visit awhile longer.

A letter was found in his pocket from his 8-year-old son, received Wednesday, which was evidently a hurried reply to a letter to Mr. Beach's mother. It read:

"West Lebanon, Ind., July 18, 1911.—Hello, Papa: We were so glad to hear from you. We are all well and hope you are, too. No, we don't want any money if you come home the last of the week. But if you don't come home $2 or $3 is all grandma says we will need. But if you come home we won't need it. You know the pear tree down by the old hickory tree. Well, we got a dish full off it, and that is all there is. But the other pear tree is loaded. It is awfully dry here. This is all I know now. We'll be glad when you come. Your loving son, Ralph E. Beach."

Foreman Hirling received a telegram Friday morning from Mrs. Beach at Iola, Kan., with the direction to send the body to West Lebanon, and it is supposed she left Iola Friday morning for Indiana. Mr. Hirling will accompany the body.

Mr. Hirling is from Williamsport, Ind., as also are several other men here in his employ, who are his brother, William Hirling; Jesse B. Lyons, Jesse McElhoe and Wilbur Waymire, and Alex Kisar, who is from Amos Beach's town, West Lebanon. All these are young men, and it was evident that they felt deeply the death of the other young man, who was about 34 years old. He had worked for several years for Mr. Hirling, who considered him one of his best men. He was a genial natured young man and liked by all who knew him.

What a sad home-coming to his mother, wife and children. He hopes that 8-year-old boy is a brave little fellow. He will have to be a man now, for their only support is taken.

What a sad home-coming to his mother, wife and children. He hopes that 8-year-old boy is a brave little fellow. He will have to be a man now, for their only support is taken.

MRS. ALEX KUENSTER ILL BUT ONE WEEK

Frank Barmann and his daughter, Miss Laura Barmann, returned Friday morning from Glen Haven, Wis., where on Tuesday they attended the funeral services of Mrs. Alex Kuenster, who died there Sunday morning, after a week's illness of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Kuenster was the wife of Mrs. Barmann's brother, who was a widely known shoe merchant of Maryville for about eighteen years, and will be better remembered as the proprietor of the Elephant shoe store. They left here for Chicago about thirteen years ago, which has since been their home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Kuenster were born and reared at Glen Haven, Wis., and were married there about thirty-three years ago. Four months ago Mr. Kuenster became very ill of carbuncles. Blood poisoning set in and he was dangerously ill for many weeks.

He finally grew better under the faithful care of his wife, and three weeks ago they went to Glen Haven for a visit, and expecting the change to bring about Mr. Kuenster's recovery.

After two weeks Mrs. Kuenster was taken ill as the result of her long vigil, and she was too weak to withstand the fever's attack. She was about 51 years old at the time of her death.

Mr. Kuenster is prostrated by her death, and it is feared he will not long survive. They had no children.

Mrs. Kuenster was a woman of most lovable traits of character, and the news of her death is deeply regretted by her many old friends here.

OFFICIALS LOOKING OVER PROPOSED STREET

G. W. Entrikin of Omaha, division freight agent of the Wabash, was in the city Thursday to look over Storm avenue, the proposed new street that will be opened soon.

Mr. Entrikin was met by Mayor Robey, President Taylor of the Normal and Edward Ferritor, Wabash agent here, and they went over the ground.

The Wabash, instead of making the proposed street as has been arranged for, would like for the road to go just north of their tracks for a little distance and then go across to the Normal property.

However, nothing was done about the matter.

Her Grandfather Died.

Miss Ethel Brown, a State Normal student, went to Hopkins Thursday noon to attend the funeral of her aged grandfather, Eli McAtee, who died Wednesday night.

MRS. J. J. BEAN DIED THURSDAY

Mrs. W. A. Bailey of this city received a phone message Thursday afternoon informing her of the death of Mrs. J. J. Bean of Blanchard, Ia., at 7:15 o'clock Thursday morning.

Mrs. Bean was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Martin of this city, and during the first few years of her married life was a resident of Maryville, where her husband was in the clothing business.

He has for many years been engaged in the general merchandise business at Blanchard. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Miss May Bean, who is her father's assistant; Miss Elva, at home, and Will Bean, who is married and lives in Blanchard.

Mrs. Charles Parcher of Portland, Ore., recently of this city, is a sister of Mrs. Bean, and the last surviving member of a family of ten children.

The funeral services for Mrs. Bean were held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. She had been in poor health for several years and was confined to her bed since December last.

BOND ISSUE TO COME UP AT COUNCIL MEETING

At the city council meeting this evening an ordinance calling for a special election to be held soon to vote on a $100,000 bond issue to install a water plant will be presented to the council for their approval. There seems to be some doubt as to whether the council will adopt the ordinance at this time, as we understand there are only four so far committed.

Somewhere along the Guggenheim trail, brother Charley always shows up. A resolution has just been introduced in congress calling on the president for information as to just what extent Ryan, Ballinger and Charles P. Taft were mixed up in the Guggenheim syndicate that tried to steal Uncle Sam's coal lands in Alaska. For the brother of the president, Charley seems to be a rather thrifty chap who always "stands in when there is a melon to be cut by the interests."

The automobile law, one of the revenue measures passed by the forty-sixth general assembly that escaped the executive axe, is making the secretary of state's office a very busy place these hot days. By the terms of this law it will be necessary for every owner of an automobile to take out license August 1st, and applications are coming in at the rate of 300 per day. If you own a machine it would be well to get busy at once and get your application on file, thereby avoiding the crush on the first day of the month.

THE CHRONIC GROUCH.

Pity the man who is imbued with a chronic grouch; who goes through life growing his discontent. He is a mental pervert that spreads poison at every hand. Avoid him as you would a hideous monster. He is diseased in mind and body. He is his own worst enemy. You might say his entire life is spent in an endeavor on his part to take revenge against himself and against all mankind. Men and women of that type are committing a crime against themselves and against everyone with whom they come in contact.

If it is a crime to commit suicide, then they are criminals, for such people are already dead mentally. Their minds are living cemeteries; that is, they are filled with the accumulated corpses of the evidence of past sorrows. Such people ought to be protected from themselves and others ought to be protected from them. If they cannot be cured then they at least ought to have a separate community where they could all "get together," and in the pleasure of exchanging sorrows find so much joy that ultimately they might be cured.

Do not nurse a grouch. Do not be crabbed. Let the sunshine in. Let it spread over you the wholesomeness of content.

Break the awful habit of clinging to unpleasant experiences and let every pleasant moment linger in your mind day after day on to life's very end. For you must remember that as you allow life's joys to impress and possess you their power over you increases day after day. They will add to your mental and physical strength. They will often soften, and in some cases beautify your features; therefore, let the sunshine in and allow life's joys to impress you.—Mokane Missourian.

SIX OF THEM.

SIX constitutional amendments will be submitted to the voters of the state for their approval at the general election next year, as follows: Providing that free public schools may be established for persons between 5 and 6 and over 20 years of age, raising the amount of taxes which may be levied by cities having between 10,000 and 30,000 inhabitants from 60 to 100 cents on the $100 valuation, and of cities having from 1,000 to 10,000 from 50 to 90 cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, permitting the county of St. Louis to add an additional 5 per cent tax levy for the purpose of constructing sewer districts for the purpose of purchasing or constructing water works; permitting male citizens of the United States and male persons of foreign birth who shall have become citizens of the United States to vote; providing for the issuance of bonds to the amount of $5,000,000 for the purpose of erecting a new state capitol at Jefferson City; and providing for the registration of all voters in all counties having a population of 50,000 or more and which adjoins a city having a population of 300,000 or more. Of course, the capitol amendment will not be submitted if the three and a half million dollar proposition carries at the special election, August 1.

ST. LOUIS LIVE STOCK MARKET.

National Stock Yards, Ill., July 20. Cattle receipts today, 2,000. Receipts of cattle so far this week less than 14,000, against 33,200 same time last week. A big decrease, to be sure, and it helped prices wonderfully. Compared with last Thursday, choice to prime steers are 15@25c higher; top sale, $6.75; could be good enough to reach $7.00. Medium to good steers and all cows and heifers excepting canners are 40@75c higher; top, $7.25.

If rain reports are not exaggerated it means moderate receipts and strong markets again next week. We believe the low point this year has been passed.

Hog receipts, 12,000. Market strong; top, $6.95. Bulk, $6.80@6.95.

Sheep receipts, 5,500. Sheep and lambs strong. Top lambs, $7.25; top sheep, $4.00. Next week's outlook favorable.

NO MORE DANDRUFF.

The Koch Pharmacy Sells the Remedy That is Guaranteed to Kill All Dandruff Germs.

Of course you and every intelligent reader of The Democrat-Forum knows that dandruff is caused by a germ.

Dr. Sagerbund, the great French physician, proved this beyond a doubt.

In order to rid your scalp of filthy dandruff you must kill the germ. There is a hair dressing called Parisian Sage which is now sold in every town in America, that is guaranteed to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair, splitting hair and scalp itch in two weeks, or money back.

If you have dandruff get a large 50 cent bottle today and rid yourself of it. Remember that if dandruff germs are not destroyed in time the hair will surely fall out and baldness will follow.

Here's proof of what Parisian Sage has done; it will do more. It is the finest hair grower and hair dressing in the world, and people who use it regularly will never grow bald. Mrs. John Stoner, Evansville, Ind., writes on June 2, 1910:

"I used Parisian Sage and found it very successful; it removes dandruff and gives the hair life. I only used two bottles. I know it is a cure for dandruff."

Large bottles 50 cents at the Koch Pharmacy and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every carton.

Mrs. Mary Kimpel and daughter, Miss Anna, of Bockow, were in Maryville on business Thursday.

CONTRADICTS HINES' STORY

Aldrich Tells of Talk With Lberman About Lorimer.

HE SAW HIM THREE TIMES

Former Senate Leader Told Hines That President Did Not Object to Boutell or Lorimer and That Taft Would Keep Out of It.

Washington, July 21.—Former Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island told the senate Lorimer committee of the part he and President Taft took in the election of a senator from Illinois in 1909.

Instead of telling Edward Hines of Chicago, the storm center in the present Lorimer investigation, that he and the president were anxious to have Lorimer elected, Mr. Aldrich declared that he said Lorimer's candidacy was "not objectionable."

When attorneys for Lorimer, or cross-examination, tried to show that the former senator might have said "acceptable," Mr. Aldrich emphatically declared that he said "not objectionable" and that he meant that word and nothing more.

He added that he knew Hines would use the information given him at Springfield.

Mr. Aldrich also denied that he told Hines that he considered Lorimer the only man who could be elected. He declared that he did not ask Senator Penrose to bring Hines to consult with him in regard to the Illinois election and added that he did not believe Senator Penrose brought Hines to his room.

According to Mr. Aldrich, all the conversations he had with Hines in regard to the senatorial situation were regarding the president's attitude toward candidates, first Hopkins, then Boutell, then finally Lorimer. The senator denied that he told Hines he wanted a senator elected because of the prospective close vote on the tariff

What Hines Said.

Mr. Aldrich said he had three or four conversations with Hines about the Illinois election, but could not recall on whose initiative these occurred. "Mr. Hines," continued Mr. Aldrich, "said at the first conversation that if his judgment Hopkins could not be elected and he asked me what the attitude of the president was. I said the president was desirous of the election of a Republican and while naturally he was friendly to Hopkins because of the primary result and perhaps other reasons, still he did not intend to take any active part in trying to influence the election of Hopkins or any other candidate."

"Mr. Hines then told me," said Mr. Aldrich, "that it was impossible to agree on Boutell and that he believed there was a possibility of agreeing on Lorimer. He was anxious to know the attitude of the president toward Mr. Lorimer. I told him I would give him an answer later. Later in the day I told him Mr. Lorimer's candidacy would not be objectionable to the president."

"Then," continued Mr. Aldrich, "Mr. Hines asked me if I would say that to anyone who inquired of me. I told him that I would say that Mr. Lorimer's election was not objectionable to the president. I said that the president occupied the same position that he had; that he didn't intend to take any part in the election, and that Mr. Lorimer's Republicanism was satisfactory to the president."

Editors Clash Over Meeting Place.

Detroit, July 21.—The place of holding the next convention of the National Editorial Association, which adjourned here after a three days' session, was referred to the national council, a body created in the reorganization of the association. The reference followed a stiff scrimmage. Though a dozen cities were after the convention, the fight narrowed down to Omaha and Richmond, Va. The action of the convention is considered a victory for the western city.

REMSEN BOARD TO BE PROBED

House Committee Wants Information as to Cost and Work.

Washington, July 21.—In connection with the charges against Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the chemistry bureau, the house committee on agricultural department expenditures called on the secretary of agriculture for complete information regarding the cost and work of the Remsen board of experts in pure food matters.

The committee decided that the board's work was an integral part of the Wiley case, which it will investigate in connection with the department personnel board's recent recommendation that Dr. Wiley be dismissed for a technical violation of the law under which pure food experts are employed.

The committee wants to know what the Remsen board has cost the government, what work it has accomplished, what recommendation it has made, and what has been done with those recommendations.

The Remsen board was appointed by President Roosevelt, to decide the famous benzoate of soda case. Dr. Wiley held that it was injurious to health and that its use in food preparations should not be allowed. The Remsen board held that when used in certain small quantities, benzoate of soda could not be considered harmful.

STRANG KILLED IN AUTO SMASH

Meets Death When Machine Jumps Embankment.

WISCONSIN PILOT RECKLESS.

Said by Associates in State Reliability Run to Have Been Courting Death Since Party Left Milwaukee Last Monday.

Milwaukee, July 21.—Louis Strang of Racine, probably the best known automobile racer in Wisconsin, was killed at Blue River when his Case car, which he was driving in the state reliability tour, jumped an embankment.

Strang was in charge of the machine carrying the technical committee. While going along at good speed the machine encountered a passing team. In endeavoring to get out of the way, the car jumped a bank.

Three other men jumped and escaped practically unharmed.

That Strang was deliberately inviting death in the present state reliability run was the opinion of his associates on the tour. Since leaving Milwaukee Monday, Strang is said to have been so reckless that others who started in his car refused to ride with him. He was recently sued for divorce by his wife.

WILL WIND UP LEWIS' AFFAIRS

Receivership for All Promoter's Property and Companies.

St. Louis, July 21.—The petition of 233 creditors for a blanket receivership of all the property, companies and enterprises of E. G. Lewis was granted in the United States circuit court by Judges Dyer and McPherson.

The court's decision will take the property out of the hands of the reorganization syndicate, which has been in charge of it for nearly three months. The St. Louis Union Trust company is the receiver.

In his opinion, Judge McPherson compared the Lewis schemes to the Mississippi bubble and other historic get-rich-quick episodes and declared that if a fraction of the allegations made in the receivership petition were true the Lewis affair constituted one of the most gigantic frauds of the century.

REBELS TAKE CAPE HAITIEN

Generals Take Refuge in Consulates and City is Pillaged.

Cape Haitien, July 21.—The city is at the mercy of the revolutionists and is being pillaged. All the generals opposed to the revolution have found refuge in the foreign consulates. The French consul was slightly wounded while offering protection to the local authorities.

An American yacht, anchored off the town, offers refuge to Americans and other foreign women and children pending the arrival of a United States warship.

The enemy occupied the city when the populace practically declared for the revolutionists. The situation has grown steadily more grave.
